NEW PUBLICATIONS 2025-2026

This catalogue gives details of all the publications produced by the International Court of Justice from 1 August 2025 to 31 July 2026.

Please note that the prices for all publications are given in US dollars.

The Court's printed and digital publications are sold by the Sales and Marketing Section of the United Nations Secretariat (please contact publications@un.org for general enquiries) on the following websites:

- shop.un.org or mngbookshop.co.uk/publisher/united-nations-publications/ (printed publications)
- www.un-ilibrary.org/content/international-court-of-justice (digital publications).

Orders from Europe, Africa, the Middle East or China should be addressed either to mng.csd@wiley.com (for individual orders and enquiries) or to trade@wiley.com (for trade orders and enquiries). Orders from the Americas, Asia or the Pacific should be addressed to order@un.org.

A number of distributors around the world also sell the Court's publications (see the list pages 14-18).

Orders and requests for information regarding sales should not be sent to the Registry of the Court.

Commemorative and Special Publications

The Registry occasionally produces one-off commemorative publications, such as The International Court of Justice: 80 Years in the Service of Peace and Justice and The International Court of Justice at 80: An Inside View published to celebrate the eightieth anniversary of the Court.

The International Court of Justice: 80 Years in the Service of Peace and Justice

This publication marks the eightieth anniversary of the inaugural sitting of the ICJ, held on 18 April 1946 at the Peace Palace in The Hague. Produced entirely by the Registry, it is written with the general public in mind and uses clear and accessible language to describe the Court and its activities, with the aim of fostering a better understanding of the ICJ's role and work, and providing answers to the most frequently asked questions about the Court. Each chapter covers a different facet of the institution, including its human face. Readers will learn about the history of the Court, its judges and its Registry, the parties to proceedings before it, the principles governing its judicial activity, and the contribution made by the Court to certain areas of international law.

The International Court of Justice at 80: An Inside View

This book, which was published to mark the eightieth anniversary of the inaugural sitting of the ICJ held on 18 April 1946 at the Peace Palace, offers a fresh perspective on the institution, as seen through the eyes of its current and former officials.

In keeping with the tradition of academic works published to mark significant anniversaries of the Court, this book contains some 30 contributions from Members of the Court, judges ad hoc and Registry officials, past and present, in which the authors share their experiences of the Court and offer their observations and recommendations to further enhance its operations. These contributions provide a critical, collective and constructive reflection on the jurisdiction and jurisprudence of the Court, as well as on how the institution has evolved.

Intended for the academic community, practitioners and experts, as well as, more generally, anyone with an interest in the Court's work and in international law, this book offers new insights into the role of the Court as the principal judicial organ of the United Nations and the challenges it faces.

Reports of Judgments, Advisory Opinions and Orders (I.C.J. Reports)

Bound Volumes

This series contains the decisions of the Court in both English and French. Each decision is published shortly after delivery in an unbound fascicle which is sold separately (see page 10). The collected decisions for each calendar year are published with an alphabetical index, and bound together in up to three volumes depending on the total page count. The alphabetical index may also be purchased separately (see page 13).

In order to consult all the decisions relating to a particular case, it will generally be necessary to refer to several volumes of Reports.

Pleadings, Oral Arguments, Documents

Volumes in this series are published after the termination of each case and contain the documentation relating to the case in the language in which it was submitted, namely English or French. This includes the document instituting proceedings, the parties' written pleadings and their annexes, the verbatim records of the oral proceedings, and any documents submitted to the Court after the closure of the written proceedings. Depending on the length of the documents concerned, one or more volumes are issued for each case.

The volumes published up to 31 December 1964 (up to Sales No. 286) are cloth-bound, while subsequent volumes have paper covers.

Annuaire-Yearbook

Each year a Yearbook is published in which an account is given of the work of the Court during the period from 1 August to 31 July of the following year. This publication, previously produced in two editions (one in English (Yearbook) and one in French (Annuaire)), is now published in a single bilingual edition which provides information on the judicial activities, organization and jurisdiction of the Court, together with the procedure that it follows.

The Yearbooks were produced in cloth-bound form until 1963-1964 (Sales Nos. 4, 10, 20, 44, 67, 96, 107, 125, 136, 154, 168, 195, 215, 235, 251, 267, 278 and 288) and since then have been printed with paper covers.

Bibliography of the International Court of Justice

The Registry regularly issues a Bibliography listing the works and documents relating to the Court that have come to its attention. Bibliographies Nos. 1-18 formed Chapter IX of the relevant Yearbook or Annuaire up to the 1963-1964 editions. Bibliographies Nos. 19-57 were issued annually as separate fascicles from 1964 to 2003.

For practical reasons, the Registry now maintains a record of bibliographical references in a database and publishes them in multi-year volumes. The latest editions of the Bibliography consist of the print version of the items listed in the database and are intended to facilitate access to works referencing the Court.
